The Aisle Report

~ Special Guest Editorial ~

To our guests,
Tension is building as the big day draws near. We can't wait to see our friends and family and want you to know that we will do our very best to spend time with you all. A wonderful opportunity to do just this will be at the gift opening being held at the Courtyard by Marriott on Sunday, July 8. Everyone is invited. In special remembrance of Norah's maternal grandmother, we will be serving Marie Bonde's famous coffee cake. We also hope to have a portion of her angel collection on display. After all the excitement and preparation, culminating with the wedding and reception, this should be a great time to relax with the happy couple!

Best wishes to all,
Pat Bartash – mother of the bride

Hello Everyone!
Warren here. To all the guys who might be looking for something to do when the gals are on Norah's Bachelorette Cruise (Thursday, July 5), the plan is to head on over to Riverfest and check out some of the festivities. You can get in touch with me at onyx@acegroup.cc for more information, or see the Riverfest schedule on the web at http://www.riverfestlacrosse.com/event_schedule.php

Looking forward to seeing everyone,
Warren Bartash – father of the bride

From the Maid of Honor –

We've almost reached the end, which is of course, the beginning of Brian and Norah's life as husband and wife. Thanks to everyone who has responded to the wedding invite (and to those of you who have still not sent it in, even if you can't make it, please let us know!) It's been quite an adventure for me to be MOH from 1800 miles away, and it will be quite a ride when we all arrive in town – lots to do, lots to keep track of. But also, so much fun to look forward to!

As I have stated before, the past issues of this newsletter have been archived online at <http://bellethecat.com/wedding.html> In case you're curious, Belle the Cat is the name of my freelance writing website, with links to my blogs if anyone ever wants to check it out.

See you all soon!

The BAND!

<http://www.troubleshooterband.com/>

Gracing the stage at the Pettibone Resort reception will be Troubleshooter – a country rock band out of Rushford, Minnesota. The band, made up of drumming front man Randy, Bruce G. on piano and guitar, Bruce D. on guitar and Dennis on bass, plays everything from AC/DC to Waylen Jennings, The Proclaimers “500 Miles” to Kenny Chesney’s “Summertime.”

Since their inception in 1984, Trouble Shooter has performed in a 14 state area including 2 Canadian provinces and a number of competitive Nashville showcases. Their busy schedule (as many as 300+ nights per year) has kept them up with current song selections, as well as cutting two CDs of their own. Visit their website above for their song list, then request your favorite through the RSVP section of Norah and Brian’s wedding website:
